

Spiritual Healers Application Process

You can become a spiritual healer with Spiritualism New Zealand if you already belong to one of our member healing organisations or if you are an Individual Member of Spiritualism New Zealand yourself. You can:

- Join Spiritualism New Zealand as an Individual Member and gain full access to all our resources and benefits; or
- If you are a member of an organisation that is a member of Spiritualism New Zealand and offers SNZ spiritual healing training, you can apply to become a spiritual healer under that organisation's umbrella and gain only the benefits ascribed to spiritual healers. (If you join through an organisation, you can also join as an Individual Member at any time later.)

Having met one of those prerequisites, you can then apply to become a spiritual healer with Spiritualism New Zealand. The process and length of time it takes to qualify as a Registered Spiritual Healer depends on the extent of your experience:

- If you have no or little prior experience, you can apply to become a Provisional Spiritual Healer by completing the Provisional Spiritual Healer application form. Please check in with us first to ensure that we have trainers available to support you through this training.
- As a Provisional Spiritual Healer, once you have completed 2 years of spiritual healing training and experience, you can apply to become a Registered Spiritual Healer and need to do so within three years. To do this, complete the Registered Spiritual Healer Application form for Provisional Healers.
- If you have had at least two years spiritual healing experience with another spiritual healing training organisation (and preferably a spiritual healing qualification) and think you already meet the knowledge and experience requirements of a Registered Spiritual Healer: you can apply to have this recognised by Spiritualism New Zealand. Your prior training and experience will be taken into account as to what further training and assessments you may need, if any. To apply under these circumstances, complete the Registered Spiritual Healer Application form for those with spiritual healing experience.

Spiritual Healers Application Process

Forward your selected form and information to the treasurer@spiritualism.org.nz, along with:

1. Full details of your spiritual healing training and experience, and demonstrate your spiritual healing knowledge, as requested in the form. This may be none if you are applying to start as a Provisional Spiritual Healer, but you might supply details of any other healing modalities or energy healing modalities (e.g. Reiki) that you have learnt.
2. The date that you have paid your $30 application and processing fee into our bank account at 03 0531 0042824 000.
3. NZ Police Request and Consent Form with its required, if you are not already a Provisional Spiritual Healer who has previously done so.

This documentation will then be reviewed by Spiritualism New Zealand and you will be advised what, if any, further training and assessments you need to undergo to become a Registered Spiritual Healer.

Processing your Application

When your application and documentation is received, Spiritualism New Zealand will:

- forward the NZ Police Request and Consent Form to the NZ Police, and
- consider your application to see where you fit in relation to the criteria for becoming a Spiritual Healer.

Once information is received back from NZ Police, Spiritualism New Zealand will advise you of the next steps.

These may be part or all of the steps below, depending on your experience.

1. Acceptance as either a Provisional Spiritual Healer or Registered Spiritual Healer, with an annual practising fee of $35 which covers your public liability insurance.
2. Completion of part or all of the 2-year training program with an accredited Spiritualism New Zealand trainer. This may involve a series of online and face-to-face workshops and must be completed within 3 years of your initial registration.

3. If you are accepted as a Provisional Spiritual Healer undergoing training, you will keep a log of all training and healing sessions. The training log will be signed by the SNZ trainer delivering each session and the healing log by your clients, or the supervising Registered Spiritual Healer if healing in a Church or Centre environment. You will undergo a written and practical evaluations, and you will obtain 4 written testimonials from (independent) people who have received spiritual healing from you. At the end your training period, you can apply to become a Registered Spiritual Healer.

Expectations of Registered Spiritual Healers

When you can demonstrate that you have met all the required training and experience requirements, the Board will approve your status as a Registered Spiritual Healer and you will be forwarded your Registered Healers Certificate and Annual Practising Certificate.

Once you are a Registered Spiritual Healer you will be required to follow the steps below:

1. Pay an annual practicing fee, currently $35, which covers your public liability insurance.
2. Agree to abide by the Spiritual Healers Code of Ethics.
3. Attend refresher/advanced training as it is offered locally or online
4. Complete a NZ Police Request and Consent Form, together with required documentation, every 5 years.
